SUMMARY: On July 2, 2012 at approximately 2056 hours, the Hutchins Unit reported to the Emergency Action Center (EAC) an Offender Illness (Heat). On July 2, 2012, after review with medical staff it was determined that Offender Caddell had received and Intravenous Fluids (IV) for Dehydration.

Offender Caddell, assigned to A4-dorm bunk 37, reported that on the morning of June 30, 2012, he woke up sweating and immediately took a shower and laid back down. During the morning he was feeling ill and sleeps a few more hours and when he awoke he felt worse than when he laid down. Offender Caddell was previously assigned to the Boiler Room and reassigned as medical unassigned on June 11, 2012. Offender Caddell told staff he needed to go to work and was allowed out for the dorm without question and went to the boiler room and used the direct phone to G-Control to notify staff of his illness and need for medical. Offender Caddell drunk 3 glass of ice water and went over to G-Building and Sgt Williams then allowed Offender Caddell to go to medical at approximately 03:45 pm.

The dorm temperature reached approximately 95degree and the high out side temperature was approximately 102.4 degrees on June 29, 2012. The morning dorm temperature on June 30, 2012 was approximately 85degrees.

Offender Caddell's body temperature was taken by Ms. Ray, LVN at 03:45 pm. and his temperature was 100. degrees. He was kept in the Emergency Room and given cool liquids. Offender Caddell's temperature was monitored at the following times 04:15 pm. 100.1 degrees, 04:45 pm. 101.1degrees, 05:15 pm. 101.4degrees, and again at 06:00 pm. 101.5degrees. Offender Caddell was then sent to Parkland by Ambulance at approximately 06:50 pm.

ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW:

In accordance with Administrative Directive 02.15 (rev.11), the following was addressed:

I. Wardens Comments:

The staff involved in this incident did act in accordance with policy and procedures. Once security staff was informed that the offender was ill medical attention was provided in a timely manner. Medical staff monitored offender Caddell and provided cool fluids and a cool place for the offender to rest. Once it was determined that offender Caddell needed further medical attention he was transported by ambulance to Parkland Hospital to be evaluated. Offender Caddell was unassigned from the boiler room job on June 11, 2012 but he continued to turnout for work. Courtroom staff had made the proper job assignment for Offender Caddell but there was no way to ensure the offender was properly notified of the job change. A process is in place to ensure that a turnout roster is being used to identify offenders assigned to the boiler room. Maintenance offender safety training does indicate proper training of boiler room offenders to include heat training and offender Caddell was trained. The dorm and other areas on the unit have posted "Recognition of Heat Illness", Offender Caddell is taking a diuretic and this may have contributed to his dehydration. Offender Caddell is on the Extreme Heat List and is on the 30 minute check list.

Abstract The purpose of this study was to determine whether there were differences in the prevalence of risk factors for coronary artery disease between men who had been exposed to asbestos and those who had not. A case-control study was conducted among men aged 60 years or older who resided in the same community as the subjects of the first National Health and Medical Research Council Australian Cancer Incidence Study. Cases were defined as men with a diagnosis of myocardial infarction or angina pectoris during the period 1972-85. Controls were randomly selected from the electoral roll. Information on potential risk factors was obtained by interview. There were no significant differences between cases and controls in age, education, occupation, smoking habits, alcohol consumption, or family history of heart disease. However, exposure to asbestos was significantly more prevalent among cases than among controls ($P = 0.001$). This finding suggests that exposure to asbestos may be associated with an increased risk of developing coronary artery disease.
